

Women and Peace: Activities in South Wales and the South West 1914 – 2017

A day school jointly organised by The West of England & South Wales Women's History Network, The Women's Archive of Wales and Abergavenny Museum.

Sat 13th May

The Melville Centre, Pen y Pound, Abergavenny, NP7 5UD

10.00 - 4.30

- 10. 00 Registration and Coffee.
- 10.15 Greeting
- 10.20 Lucienne Boyce Women's Objection to War Work in the First World War
- 11.00 Caroline Fairclough Women in Wales, WWI and beyond
- 11.25 Coffee
- 11.45 Jean Silvan Evans Rosalind Bevan, Conscientious Objector, including the film Swansea Conchie Controversy 1940
- 12.20 Elaine Titcombe A journey of exploration: Finding the Greenham protest in the archives.
- 1.00 Lunch
- 2.15 Greenham Panel: women from the Abergavenny Women for Peace Group, including Anne Francis, Lyz Jones and Wendy Evans reflecting on their experiences of Greenham.
- 3.10 Tea
- 3.30 Peace Initiatives Today for Peace in the Future: Ffion Fielding Wales for Peace, Karin Molson, Learning Manager Monmouthshire Museums, Gill Branch Hedd Wen Peace Garden, Llanfoist, Abergavenny.
- 4.15 Closing remarks

There will be an exhibition of banners, badges and other paraphernalia ...

✂.....

Booking form

Please pay £7 at the door. Price includes lunch.

Name..... Phone number

Address.....

email

Dietary requirements?

Return to Caroline Fairclough, Tyn y Llwyn, Partrishow, NP7 7LT, phone 01873 890540

Email: caroline_fairclough@yahoo.co.uk